

Unusual Opportunities Offering: BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dear Bulletin Secretary:

Your assistance with publicizing the upcoming Unusual Opportunities Offering on September 14, 2024, is truly appreciated. Please copy and paste the following announcements into your church bulletin on the dates indicated in the brackets.

{Copy and paste the following announcement in your August 31 church bulletin}:

Unusual Opportunities Offering — September 14: What does a television station in Norway have to do with an Ebola center in Africa? In recent years, they were both funded by the Unusual Opportunity Fund. In two short weeks, we'll be collecting the Unusual Opportunities Offering. Please mark your calendar and prepare to give generously.

{Copy and paste the following announcement in your September 7 church bulletin}:

Unusual Opportunities Offering 2024: In the same way that a cheetah can spring into action in record time, when an unexpected situation hits the Seventh-day Adventist Church, we need to be nimble and agile to respond rapidly. By doing so, we can turn a challenge into a new opportunity to increase the impact of God's mission throughout the world. Don't forget to give generously next Sabbath, September 14, to the Unusual Opportunities Offering!

{Copy and paste the following announcement in your September 14 church bulletin}:

Today is Unusual Opportunities Offering Day! Unusual Opportunities require a rapid and generous response from God's people. That's why we're asking you today to please give generously to the Unusual Opportunities Offering appeal!

You can find a range of resources to help you promote this offering at AdventistMission.org/mission-offerings. They include social media ads, posters, offering appeals, and bulletin inserts.
